2013 ASEE Annual Conference Call for Papers

The Engineering Ethics Division invites abstracts for papers for the 2013 ASEE Annual Conference in Atlanta, GA. Possible areas include the following:

Academic integrity
Best practices in teaching ethics
Engineering ethics as a discipline
Ethical aspects of service learning
Ethical decision making in emergency planning and response
Ethics and diversity
Ethics and local cultures impacted by engineering projects
Ethics and social justice
Ethics and sustainability
Ethics and the law
Ethics of emerging technologies
Ethics, nanotechnology, and biometrics
Ethics and climate change
Ethics and entrepreneurship
Ethics and biomedical issues
Internationalization of ethics
The engineer in public policy
Engineering and public policy
Public responsibility of engineers
Engineering ethics in the curriculum
Ethics in public health issues
Faculty and researcher development in engineering ethics
Research of engineering ethics in practice
Using case studies to teach engineering ethics

For more information about the submission process, please refer to the statement at:

http://www.asee.org/conferences-and-events/conferences/annual-conference/2013/program-schedule/call-for-papers

For more information concerning topics, contact the Program Chair:

Christopher J. Bise
Professor and Robert E. Murray Chairman
Department of Mining Engineering
West Virginia University
Morgantown, WV 26506

Phone: 304/293-3831
E-Mail: Chris.Bise@mail.wvu.edu