Associate Professor in Experimental Physics, Linköpings Universitet
Chairman, Swedish Science Education Research Association

Biography

Jonte Bernhard, Ph D (Eng.), is an associate professor in experimental physics, especially electronics, at Linköping University, Campus Norrköping, Sweden. His research is presently focused on engineering and physics education, and he has initiated the Engineering Education Research Group at Linköping University. He has obtained several large grants from the Swedish Research Council and the Swedish National Agency for Higher Education for research in and development of engineering education. Previously Dr Bernhard has an extensive record of research in magnetic materials with a Ph. D. in Solid State Physics and an M.Sc. (Eng.) degree in Engineering Physics both from Uppsala University. Presently he is the chairman of the Physics Working Group of the European Society for Engineering Education (SEFI) and for the Swedish Science Education Research Association.
