

AEROSPACE ENGINEERING DIVISION

JOHN LELAND ATWOOD AWARD

Glenn Lightsey

Professor
Aerospace Engineering and Engineering
Mechanics Department
University of Texas, Austin

This award was established in 1985 in honor of Lee Atwood, a master of aviation and a pioneer in missile and space projects. It is bestowed annually upon an outstanding aerospace engineering educator in recognition of contributions to the profession. The award is endowed by Rockwell International and consists of a $2,000 honorarium, a certificate, and reimbursement of travel expenses to the ASEE Annual Conference. The American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics also presents an engraved medal and a certificate to the recipient at its annual aerospace sciences meeting.

MECHANICAL ENGINEERING DIVISION

RALPH COATS ROE AWARD

Dennis Assanis

Director, Michigan Memorial Phoenix
Energy Institute
Jon R. and Beverly S. Holt Professor of Engineering
Arthur F. Thurnau Professor
Department of Mechanical Engineering
University of Michigan

This award honors an outstanding mechanical engineering teacher who has made notable contributions to the engineering profession. Financed from an endowment established by Kenneth A. Roe of Burns and Roe, Inc. in honor of his father, Ralph Coats Roe, the award consists of a $10,000 honorarium, a plaque, and reimbursement of travel expenses to attend the ASEE Annual Conference.

ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING DIVISION

FREDERICK EMMONS TERMAN AWARD

Tony Givargis

Professor
Department of Computer Science and Engineering
University of California, Irvine

This award is conferred upon an outstanding young electrical engineering educator in recognition of contributions to the profession. The award, established in 1969, is sponsored by the Hewlett-Packard Company and consists of a $4,000 honorarium, a gold-plated medal, a bronze replica, a presentation scroll, and reimbursement of travel expenses for the awardee to attend the ASEE Frontiers in Education Conference, where the award will be presented.