Montreal Meeting

Industry Day at Annual Meeting

2002 ASEE National and Society Award Recipients and Fellow Member Honorees

Board Votes Approval of K-12 Membership Categories

New ASEE Council Chairs

EDC Submits Testimony on NSF Budget

AAAS Seeks Nominations

Montreal Meeting

The 2002 ASEE Annual Conference will be held in June 16-19 in Montreal, Canada. It promises to be an outstanding meeting this year with higher than ever attendance, more and better papers, and two distinguished well-known speakers for the Main Plenary. William A. Wulf, president of the National Academy of Engineering (NAE), and John Brooks Slaughter, president and CEO of the National Action Council for Minorities in Engineering (NACME), will address Conference participants on Monday, June 17. Register for the meeting before June 6th, and the fee is $407; after that the rate goes to $440. Many hotels are fully booked, but at print time, there was still room at Le Centre Sheraton Hotel.

Industry Day at Annual Meeting

ASEE's Corporate Member Council (CMC) is sponsoring Industry Day at the Annual Conference in Montreal on Tuesday, June 18. CMC invites all attendees to include Industry Day in their schedules.

2002 ASEE National and Society Award Recipients and Fellow Member Honorees

The following candidates have been selected to receive the 2002 ASEE National and Society Awards and Fellow Member status. These candidates were selected by the respective award selection committees and approved by the ASEE Awards Policy Committee.

National Awards:

Frederick J. Berger Award
Jack Waintraub, Chair, Electrical Engineering Technology Department
Middlesex County College

Chester F. Carlson Award
Cynthia J. Atman, Director, Center for Engineering Learning & Teaching
Associate Professor, Industrial Engineering
University of Washington

Sharon Keillor Award for Women in Engineering Education
Audeen W. Fentiman, Chair, Nuclear Engineering Program
Associate Professor, Civil & Environmental Engineering & Geodetic Science
The Ohio State University

James H. McGraw Award
Albert L. McHenry, Dean, College of Technology & Applied Sciences
Arizona State University East

Fred Merryfield Design Award
Clive L. Dym, Fletcher Jones Professor and Chair, Department of Engineering
Harvey Mudd College

Minorities in Engineering Award
Sara Wadia-Fascetti, Associate Professor of Civil & Environmental Engineering
Northeastern University

Robert G. Quinn Award
Robert Hesketh, Professor of Chemical Engineering
Rowan University

William Elgin Wickenden Award
Patrick T. Terenzini, Professor and Senior Scientist
Center of Higher Education
Pennsylvania State University

Society Award:

Benjamin Garver Lamme Award
Eleanor Baum, Dean, School of Engineering
The Cooper Union
Fellow Member Honorees:

W. David Baker
Rochester Institute of Technology (retired)

Frank M. Croft, Jr.
Associate Professor & Section Head of Engineering Graphics
Department of Civil & Environmental Engineering & Geodetic Science
The Ohio State University

Denny C. Davis
Professor, Biological Systems Engineering
Washington State University

Paul N. Hale, Jr.
Professor, Biomedical Engineering
Associate Dean for External Programs, College of Engineering & Science
Louisiana Tech University

J. David Irwin
Earle C. Williams Eminent Scholar, Professor & Head
Electrical Engineering Department
Auburn University

Sudhir I. Mehta
Professor, Mechanical Engineering
North Dakota State University

Donald N. Merino
Professor, Technology & Engineering Management
Stevens Institute of Technology

Burks Oakley II
Professor, Electrical and Computer Engineering
University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

C. Stewart Slater
Chair and Professor, Department of Chemical Engineering
Rowan University

BOARD VOTES APPROVAL OF K-12 MEMBERSHIP CATEGORIES

The ASEE Board of Directors has approved two new membership categories designed to serve K-12 teachers and administrators. For K-12 Individual Membership, there is K-12 Educator, who would receive subscriptions to ASEE Prism and Profiles of Engineering Colleges. The individual can subscribe to the Journal of Engineering Education for $10/year additional, join Professional Interest Divisions, and participate in all membership activities, including volunteer leadership. Dues are $35/year. For Institutional Membership, there is K-12 School. This membership allows up to four individuals to receive the same benefits as a K-12 member, and dues are $125/year.

NEW ASEE COUNCIL CHAIRS

Theodore Okiishi, Iowa State University, is the new chair of the Engineering Research Council, and Michael O’Hair, Purdue University at Kokomo, is the new chair for the Engineering Technology Council. Both will be inducted on to the ASEE Board of Directors at the ASEE Awards Banquet in Montreal in June.

EDC SUBMITS TESTIMONY ON NSF BUDGET

The ASEE Engineering Deans Council submitted written testimony to the VA-HUD-Independent Agencies Appropriations Subcommittee on the proposed FY 2003 NSF budget. Under the name of Carl Locke, EDC Chair and University of Kansas Dean of Engineering, the EDC recommended an increase for NSF of $718 M, or 15%, above the FY 2002 level of $4.79 B, which would bring the agency's budget to $5.508 B.

AAAS SEeks NOMINATIONS

The American Association for the Advancement of Science is seeking nominations by June 1 for its Scientific Freedom and Responsibility Award. Award recipients receive a plaque, $2,500, and recognition at the AAAS Annual Meeting. The award is given to scientists or engineers or their associations whose exemplary actions have served to foster scientific freedom and responsibility. Such achievements can include: acting to protect the public's health, safety or welfare; focusing public attention on important potential impacts of science and technology on society by their responsible participation in public policy debates; or establishing important new precedents in carrying out the social responsibilities or in defending the professional freedom of scientists and engineers. To submit a nomination, send the following information to Deborah Runkle, Senior Program Associate, AAAS, 1200 New York Ave., NW, Washington, DC 20005: the names, addresses, phone number, and e-mail of both the nominator and the nominee; a summary of the action(s) that form the basis for the nomination (about 250 words).