
Engineering Economy Division

The Engineering Economy Division (EED) of ASEE seeks papers for presentation at the ASEE Annual Conference and Exposition being held in Salt Lake City, Utah, June 24-27, 2018. Relevant submissions are welcome from all engineering disciplines. Topics of interest include, but are not limited to, economic analysis across engineering disciplines; innovative teaching methods for engineering economy; case studies for the classroom; integrating engineering economy research into the classroom; teaching engineering economy to diverse populations of students; and international aspects of engineering economy education.

Abstract submission details (including the Author's Kit with deadlines and instructions) can be found on ASEE's conference website at:

Paper Management:

<https://www.asee.org/conferences-and-events/conferences/annual-conference/2018/papers-management/for-authors>

Author Kit:

<https://www.asee.org/documents/conferences/annual/2018/2018-Authors-Kit.pdf>

Authors of accepted abstracts will be invited to submit full length papers for peer review and inclusion in the conference proceedings, and all accepted papers will be considered for the division's $1000 Best Paper award.

In addition, we especially welcome submissions from new engineering economy educators (students and/or faculty teaching engineering economy less than 5 years) and if accepted, these authors will be eligible for up to a $1000 conference sponsorship to cover expenses of attending and presenting at the annual conference.

For more information, please contact the Engineering Economy Division program chair, Billy Gray at bgray@tarleton.edu.