

May 1, 2020

ASEE Members Elect Adrienne Minerick President-Elect

ASEE members recently elected Adrienne Minerick to the position of president-elect, in addition to five officers to the Board of Directors. The board members will begin their terms at the conclusion of the 2020 ASEE Virtual Annual Conference in June. The full list is below.

Adrienne Minerick, Dean, College of Computing Professor, Chemical Engineering Michigan Technological University, was elected President-Elect.

Brian P. Self, Professor of Mechanical Engineering at California Polytechnic State University, was elected Vice President, Member Affairs.

Chell A. Roberts, Dean, Shiley-Marcos School of Engineering at the University of San Diego, was elected Chair of Professional Interest Council II.

John Estell, Professor of Computer Engineering and Computer Science at Ohio Northern University, was elected Chair of Professional Interest Council III.

Ilya Grinberg, Professor and Coordinator of Electrical Engineering Technology at State University of New York, Buffalo State College, was elected Chair of the Council of Sections for Zone I (term begins in 2021).

Tariq Khraishi, Professor Director of the Undergraduate Program Mechanical Engineering Department at University of New Mexico, was elected Chair of the Council of Sections for Zone III (term begins in 2021).

ASEE IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER