

Jean-Eric Aubert
Lead Specialist
World Bank Institute Knowledge for Development Program

Biography

Lead Specialist at the World Bank Institute Knowledge for Development Program (knowledge economy studies and policy advice for developing countries). Based in Paris, coordinates WBI offices in Paris and Marseilles.

Prior to joining the World Bank in 2000, Jean-Eric Aubert worked at the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (Directorate for Science, Technology and Industry), leading notably S&T country reviews and flagship publications. He has also acted as consultant for a number of international organizations including the European Commission and UN bodies (UNIDO, UNESCO, UNCTAD, UNU).

Jean-Eric Aubert, a French national, has a Post-Graduate diploma in Economics and a Ph.D. in Applied Mathematics from Paris universities. He has been responsible as author or editor of more than 30 publications and published a number of articles in science and technology policy, social sciences and cultural issues.