

Denis McGrath
Registrar
Engineers Ireland

Biography

Denis McGrath is a Chartered Engineer and a Fellow of Engineers Ireland. He is responsible for accreditation, membership policies and international agreements. Engineers Ireland is a founding signatory to the Washington Accord. He was involved in the development of the European Network for the Accreditation of Engineering Education (ENAAE), and is a member of its EURACE Label Committee. He is Chairman of the Dublin Accord and a member of the Governing Council of the International Engineering Movement of international agreements which includes the Washington, Sydney and Dublin Accords.

Prior to joining Engineers Ireland, Denis worked in the food-processing sector and the engineering education sector in Ireland.