Community Engagement Division By-Laws

Adopted: June 29, 2011
Revised: September 16, 2015

[A] NAME

The name of this unit shall be the Community Engagement Division.

[B] OBJECTIVES

The objectives of this unit are identical with the objectives of the Society as set out in the ASEE Constitution, with an emphasis on those objectives that pertain to provide a primary point of discussion and dissemination of the value and impact of service-based efforts in engineering. Learning through service represents a conglomeration of pedagogical methods that combine academic learning objectives with service efforts. Such efforts have lead to an explosion of interest among many of the stakeholders involved in engineering including faculty, students, administrators, alumni, employers, and affected community partners. Specifically, the unit shall:

[1] disseminate knowledge on service-based efforts in engineering education

[2] encourage efforts to improve design, implementation, and assessment of service-based pedagogy; and

[C] MEMBERSHIP

The members of this unit shall be those members of the American Society for Engineering Education (ASEE) who identify to ASEE their wish to be affiliated with the group each year.

[D] ORGANIZATION

The unit shall be administered by an Executive Committee composed of the Chair, Vice Chair, Secretary-Treasurer, Program Chair Elect, and Program Chair. The Chair shall represent the unit on the Council Board of the Professional Interest Council to which the unit has been assigned by the Society.

• Keep the Executive Committee informed about the activities and progress of the Nominating Committee.

[8] The AWARDS COMMITTEE CHAIR shall:

• Lead the Awards Selection Committee in selecting recipients of unit awards (including but not limited to the Best Paper Award and Community Engagement Video Awards) in accordance with the provisions of each award and the policies and procedures established for awards by the Executive Committee of the unit.

• Promptly communicate awardee selection and information to ASEE headquarters.

• Notify awardee and nominator of selection and of presentation details.

• Plan the presentation ceremony.

• Notify nominators whose nominees were not selected.

• Keep the Executive Committee informed about the activities and progress of the Awards Committee.

[G] ELECTION OF OFFICERS

[1] The Nominating Committee shall annually nominate two or more candidates for each elected office for which the term is due to expire at the next annual business meeting. Officers to be elected by vote of the unit members on a two year cycle are Chair and Secretary-Treasurer.

[2] Additional nominations for any elective office may be made at the annual meeting by presentation of such nominations in writing with the signatures of at least five (5) unit members who are present at the meeting. These additional nominees shall be voted on along with the nominees selected by the Nominating Committee. A simple plurality of the votes cast shall be sufficient to elect an officer.
[3] Except in the case of a special election necessitated by the resignation or death of the Chair-Elect, as required in [E-3-b] above, election of officers shall be conducted by written ballot among those members of the unit actually present at the annual business meeting. Special elections may be conducted by e-mail, providing that those members of the unit who do not have e-mail addresses on record have the opportunity to vote by either mail or fax.

[4] Members may not hold more than one Executive Committee office at any time, except under the provisions of Article [E].

[H] COMMITTEES

[1] The Executive Committee shall establish such standing and ad hoc committees as it deems necessary to carry out the activities of the unit.

[2] At least two (2) standing committees shall be maintained: the Nominating Committee and Awards Committee.

[3] The Nominating Committee consists of the Nominating Committee Chair, Immediate Past Chair, and any other members appointed by the current Chair. The unit Chair shall appoint one member of the committee to serve as Nominating Committee Chair.

[4] The Awards Selection Committee consists of the Awards Committee Chair, Program Chair, Program Chair Elect, and any other members appointed by the current Chair. The unit Chair shall appoint one member of the committee to serve as Awards Committee Chair.

[I] MEETINGS & ACTIVITIES

[1] An annual business meeting of the unit shall be held during the annual conference of the Society. Those members present at the meeting shall constitute a quorum. The business meeting shall include at least:

[a] Reports from the incumbent officers on the unit's activities for the preceding year, membership, and finances.

[b] Election of officers for the following year.

[c] Presentation of unit awards, unless the unit schedules a separate function for that purpose.

[2] The Executive Committee shall hold regular meetings during the annual conference of the Society and special meetings throughout the year as called by the Chair. A minimum of three members of the Executive Committee shall be required to establish a quorum.
[3] The Executive Committee may establish such other activities as deemed desirable to promote the objectives of the unit.

[4] All meetings of the unit are open to all interested persons. Only members of the Executive Committee, however, are eligible to vote on Executive Committee matters and only members of the unit are eligible to vote on unit-wide matters, including the election of officers.

[J] PUBLICATIONS

[1] The unit shall produce and distribute such publications as the Executive Committee deems appropriate to promote the objectives of the unit.

[2] In accordance with Article VIII of the ASEE Constitution, papers and discussions presented at meetings of ASEE and the councils or groups therein shall become the property of ASEE and may be published as ASEE series, miscellaneous or occasional publications if authorized by the Board of Directors or its delegated representative. The ASEE Board of Directors, through its delegated representative, may grant permission to publish such papers and discussions elsewhere on condition that ASEE receive proper credit or may waive any property right ASEE may have in the paper or discussion. Papers not accepted for publication shall be returned to the authors and shall no longer be considered the property of the Society.

[K] Disbursement of Funds

[1] All requests for disbursement of funds from unit accounts shall be made directly to the current Division Chair.

[2] In response to such request, the Division Chair shall first ask the Secretary-Treasurer for an up-to-date accounting of division funds.

[3] Assuming such funds are available for disbursement, the Division Chair shall put forth a motion among the Executive Committee to either award or deny the funds requested.

[4] A simple majority vote, carried out by email, shall carry the above motion.

[5] At no time shall a Division Chair commit to disbursing funds without first following the above stated procedure.

[L] AMENDMENTS

[1] Amendments to these by-laws may be made at the annual business meeting of the unit, or by mail or e mail ballot at any time during the year, upon affirmative vote by two-thirds of the members who vote. If e mail balloting is used, those members who do not have e mail addresses on their membership records shall be provided the opportunity to cast their vote by mail or fax. Only members of the unit may vote on proposed amendments to the by-laws.

[2] Proposed amendments to these by-laws shall be prepared by a committee of unit members appointed by the unit Chair. Proposed amendments shall be sent to the full membership of the unit by letter or in the publications of the unit not less than 30 days before they are to be voted upon. Proposed amendments may also be sent to members by e-mail, providing that they are also sent by mail to those members who do not have an e-mail address on their membership records.

[3] Amendments approved by the division membership shall be submitted through the PIC III Chair for approval by majority vote of the ASEE Board of Directors and shall take effect only upon such approval.

[M] DIVERSITY

[1] The Community Engagement Division promotes diversity and inclusion in engineering education to develop and implement best practices for engaging all stakeholders in a community engagement activity, effort, or program. This includes working to improve the engineering education culture to become more cognizant of the mindsets of current, and future, generations of engineering students, faculty and practitioners. Therefore, the Community Engagement Division supports a diverse membership and the goal of a diverse engineering education community. The division does not discriminate on the basis of sex, gender, age, sexual orientation, race, ethnicity, disability, veteran status, or any other identification of individuals.

[2] Membership and election to officer positions in the Community Engagement Division is open to all individuals regardless of sex, gender, age, sexual orientation, race, ethnicity, disability, veteran status, or any other identification of individuals.

[N] BEST PAPER

[1] The annual Community Engagement Division Best Paper Award shall be selected by the Awards Committee on the basis of guidelines established by that committee.

[2] The Program Chair shall select no more than five (5) papers for consideration from those submitted for publication at the ASEE Annual Meeting. Selection of papers shall be based on guidelines established by the Awards Committee.

[3] The awards committee shall be provided with digital copies of the selected papers by the Program Chair at least 3 weeks prior to the Community Engagement Division Business Meeting at the ASEE Annual Meeting.

[O] OTHER PROVISIONS
Community Engagement Division By-Laws

[1] Any provision of these by-laws shall be deemed invalid if it contravenes the Constitution and By-Laws of the Society or of the Professional Interest Council (PIC) to which the unit belongs.

[2] The rules contained in Robert's Rules of Order, latest edition, shall govern this unit in all matters of parliamentary authority to which they are applicable and in which they are consistent with the Constitution and By-Laws of the Society and the By-Laws of this unit. In all other matters, the Constitution of the Society shall govern.
